

Mary Jane Lim-Yap, AICP, PP, is an associate urban designer and transportation planner with Glatting Jackson. Jane draws from her broad experience and training in architecture, urban design, transportation planning, in creating livable and holistic solutions for the built environment. Since joining Glatting in 2003, Jane has taken a lead role in various transportation and urban design projects, including the development of the Downtown Orlando Community Venues Master Plan, a framework plan that is guiding the $1.2 billion dollar public initiative aimed at building a new Performing Arts Center, a new Events Center, and improvements to the Florida Citrus bowl. Jane's work also includes developing the Atlanta Regional Commission's Bicycle and Pedestrian Toolkit, the Winter Park Downtown Parking Study, various corridor planning projects in New Jersey, and Station Area Planning effort for 13 stations along the Charlotte Northeast Corridor light rail line. Jane holds a joint degree of Master of City and Regional Planning and a Master of Science in Transportation Engineering from the Georgia Institute of Technology, and a Bachelor of Science in Architecture from the University of Philippines. She is a member of the American Institute of Certified Planners, the New Jersey Professional Planners, and the United Architects of the Philippines.